

Magic Milk

Cover the base of a shallow container with milk and add a few drops of food colouring. Then dip a wooden toothpick/stick into some soap/washing up liquid and gently touch it to the surface of the milk. Watch the pattern appear. Keep watching because sometimes it happens several times.

Once the soap has finished reacting swirl the colours around to create some wonderful patterns.

Can you make some of your own WOW patterns on paper using crayons or paints?