

Numbers and colours!

This is a good activity to practise understanding more complex instructions.

Set out pieces of paper with a number and a colour on each, and then hunt for the correct number of items for each colour. e.g 3 green things, 1 orange things and 2 blue ones. You could set a selection of items up on the table to be sorted into groups.

