

Painting with Trains – Gather some train toys (preferably ones that are easily washable). Set them out onto a table with some paper and some paint. Encourage the children to dip their trains in the paint and then roll them across the paper. Let them explore the paints, colours, movement of the trains, seeing what kind of patterns they make.

