

 Communication Games

 Choose a game to play with someone at home or in your bubble.

  Language through play 	   Pass the category 	   I went shopping... 	    How do you know?
    Choose a book/ What objects 	     You will need: a bag with a variety of objects in 	     The first person says, 'I went shopping and 	    You will need: a book or a picture
   can you find around the room      that match ones in the book? 	     e.g. The first person takes out an object. For example a       fork. They say a fork is in the kitchen category. 	     I bought a ____ (choose something to buy)      e.g. a banana. The next person then says 	      Read part of the book or share the picture.     Ask some obvious questions and then ones that
     Hold a pretend tea party. You could       cut out pictures of food and put them on       the plates or use real or pretend food. 	    The fork is passed to the other players. They     e.g.  or say something else in that category e.g. a fridge      a plate. The game then continues and      someone else pulls out an object. 	     a ____ (choose something to buy) The game      continues and the list grows longer!     If you are playing on your own, you could write it      down and fold the paper each time. 	  are not immediately obvious and require inference        e.g. How are they feeling? How do you know?      What time of year is it? How do you know?
