

Division

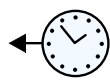

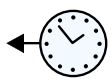

Division means sharing things into groups.

When we divide by 2, we are sharing things into 2 groups

Can you remember last week we divided by 2 to find out how much an item was if it was half price?

This week we are going to investigate division a little more.

You can watch the video of me showing you how to complete division problems then try the ones on the work sheet.

Good luck