

Adults!

Our reading activity this week is to read either a written or symbolised recipe to make a jam sandwich. Encourage your child to complete the activity as independently as is possible. There is also a video available of Amber reading the symbolised recipe.

If you are reading the recipe to your child – use the separate, bigger symbols. Can your child point to the correct symbol/item as you read the recipe to them?