Reading

Bingo

Explain what has happened so far in your book to an adult or sibling.

Read a book about a superhero.

Read from a book that has been recommended to you.

Read a book while wearing a hat.

Read a book to a parent or sibling.

Answer Blank's levelled questions about a book you are reading (see page 12).

Read a recipe and then follow it to make something in the kitchen.

Read a book that was written by a female author.

Read a story from a newspaper or news website and tell an adult what it was about.

Read a book about animals that can speak.

Take a photograph (of yourself or your child) 'in the moment' when reading a book.

Read a book with a monster in it.

Read a book in a den you have made at home.

Read a book with a prop used by one of its characters, e.g. a wizard's wand.

Think of your OWN reading activity!

Read a book for fifteen minutes without distraction.

Read while wearing odd socks!

Read a book with a cup of tea and a biscuit. (Don't ruin your appetite!)

Write down a prediction about what will happen next then read on to find out if you are right.

Learn a poem by heart and recite it (see overleaf)

Performing Poetry

A challenge for students, staff and parents! Choose a poem that you love and learn to read it aloud.

For a better recital, learn actions, gestures and expressions to accompany the poem.

For a greater challenge, try to learn the poem by heart so you do not have to read it while performing.

Film your performance and share it with staff on Evidence for Learning!

Look out for staff performances on the school website.

Add the choices on the previous page to a Wheel of Fortune-type spinner*, click spin and it'll choose for you. (*See <https://wheeldecide.com/> or do an internet search for others.)

OR

Work through each task from top to bottom.

OR

Lay the bingo sheet on a table, flip a tiddlywinks counter onto it and the square closest to where it lands is the activity you have to do.

OR

Close your eyes, holding out your finger and place it on the sheet at random.

OR

Cut out the squares in the bingo sheet, turn them over and mix them up. Get a parent or sibling to turn one over - that's the one you have to do!

Text Comprehension with Blank's Question Levels

Use these exemplar questions to enable your child to show their understanding of picture texts, e.g. illustrated storybooks, photographs, posters, etc. and books they are reading themselves (level 3 onwards).

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
